7pm RIDLEY, SEASON 2

Retired Detective Inspector Alex Ridley (Adrian Dunbar) is called back to advise on a complex and compelling murder case by his replacement and former protege DI Carol Farman. Carol is keen to access Ridley's unique insight into crime-solving which served them so well in the past, but the investigation takes a dark and unexpected twist. Photo Credit: West Road Pictures/All3media International

8pm MASTERPIECE “Moonflower Murders”

Returning to their “Magpie Murders” lead roles are Lesley Manville as the smart and feisty amateur sleuth Susan Ryeland and Timothy McMullan as the famous literary detective Atticus Pünd. This time Susan must uncover a murder detailed in Alan Conway's book to find a missing woman before it's too late. Photo Credit: Eleventh Hour Films and MASTERPIECE

9pm MASTERPIECE “Van Der Valk, Season 4”

Van der Valk and his team return to investigate new crimes in Amsterdam. In the first episode, after a whistleblower is murdered under police protection, the team are called in to make sure the second whistleblower makes it to court to testify and take down a criminal empire. Van der Valk is conflicted when he finds out the protection officer in charge of the murdered whistleblower is a former flame of his. Photo Credit: All3Media & MASTERPIECE

FRONTLINE “The Choice 2024”

Tuesday, September 24 at 8pm

The special returns with interwoven investigative biographies of both candidates, Vice President Kamala Harris and former President Donald Trump, focusing on their careers and personal lives. The two-hour special will include interviews with friends, family, colleagues and adversaries about the challenges that shaped the candidates and could inform how they confront the crises facing the nation during their term.

Friday, September 27 at 10pm

The evening commemorating Hispanic Heritage Month includes performances and appearances by some of the country's most celebrated Hispanic artists and visionaries, including Designer Carolina Herrera, Beautyblender Creator Rea Ann Silva and NBA Legend Carmelo Anthony.

Digital Media Summer Camp

WYES hosted its first Digital Media Summer Camp this summer. The application process began in April, through WYES social media and outreach to local schools. The free camp was open to any interested local high school student and was held for two weeks in July. During their sessions, led by local educator and broadcasting veteran Mary Jackson, students gained hands-on experience in broadcasting and digital media and helped produce "Did You KnowLa?" segments (Click QR code above to view) for WYES' YouTube channel. WYES staff members and WWL-TV anchor Brandon Walker also gave their time sharing their experience in journalism and public media.

We were pleased to welcome students from St. Augustine High School, Benjamin Franklin High School, The Willow School New Orleans, Morris Jeff Community School and Academy of Our Lady.

Funding was provided by New Orleans Recreation & Culture Fund.

"Al Copeland Jr.'s Secret Recipe for Business Success"

Al Copeland Jr. is the CEO and Chairman of the Board of Al Copeland Investments (ACI). He is also president of the Al Copeland Foundation (ACF), which supports local cancer research, education and patient programs.

Al will talk about his 40 years as a successful business leader drawing on the mentorship of his late father, Al Copeland, founder of Popeyes. He will also share his passion and dedication to cancer research and the groundbreaking treatments that are saving lives.
