◀ LUCY WORSLEY'S HOLMES VS DOYLE

Sundays, December 8-22 at 7pm

The popular British historian is back again with an investigation on the love-hate relationship between Sherlock Holmes, the greatest detective who never lived, and the complex man who created him – Arthur Conan Doyle. From the dying years of Victorian England, through the imperial crisis of the Boer war, the optimism of the early Edwardian years, to the trauma of the First World War, Arthur and Sherlock lived through them all.
